3 Resolutions By Shawnee Hills Ass'n

Congressman Gray Addresses Group At Meeting Held at Shawneetown

The Shawnee Hills Recreation association, at its December meeting Monday night in the Legion Home at Shawneetown, passed three resolutions aimed at aiding southeastern Illinois and heard a major address by Cong. Kenneth Gray of West Frankfort, Ill.

Resolutions passed requested the following:

1. More money for development of the Shawnee National Forest, because other National Forests in the U. S. are ahead of it in development, and that the U. S. Park Service make a comprehensive study of old Shawneetown with the idea in mind of having it made into a national park.
2. That Congress pass the Area Redevelopment bill sponsored in the House by Cong. Gray and in the Senate by U. S. Senator Paul Douglas.
3. That a new dam on the Ohio river not be placed below the mouth of the Saline river, as has been proposed by some, because "it will seriously affect the drainage."

Trucker Averts Possible Blast

Quick action by truck driver Jack Haynes of Commerce, Okla., prevented a possible tragic explosion early this morning at the Riegel's Pine Rest motel west of Harrisburg at the Carrier Mills black top road.

Haynes, who stopped overnight at the motel, had parked his trailer truck loaded with 34,000 pounds of ammonium nitrate as far as possible from any other automobile, but during the night an auto driven by Edward Davis, RFD 2, Marion, had parked beside the trailer and had caught fire.

Haynes, who was asleep, was notified of the burning car beside his truck, and quickly jumped from bed and barefooted and in his night clothes moved the trailer away from the burning auto.

The auto was destroyed by the fire and part of the tarpaulin covering the trailer was burned and the side of the trailer scorched.

The ammonium nitrate, from Military, Kansas, highly explosive, was consigned to the Austin Powder company near the Blue Bird 8 mine site between Harrisburg and Marion.

State Trooper Adolph Sweat, who rushed to the scene when notified of the burning auto, stated a tragic explosion could have resulted as the ammonium nitrate was the same stuff which caused the terrible explosion at Texas City, Texas, a few years ago.

Farley Elected Secretary

During the evening Louis Aaron of Harrisburg made a stirring plea in behalf of Old Shawneetown, John Klaffer, Eldorado native, told of his exploration of the Cave near Sulphur Springs, State Rep. Paul Powell of Vienna praised the work of the SHRA and William Farley of Harrisburg was elected secretary of the organization. B. D. Fowler of Metropolis had been elected to the post for 1958 but declined the office and Mr. Farley, who served during 1957, was renamed to the post.

Cong. Gray told the group that the tourist industry was just as important for southern Illinois as smokestacks and spoke of the things in which he had had a part which are designed to raise the economic level in southern Illinois.

He told of the 1956 Highway Act, which will give America 41,000 miles of turnpikes with the federal government footing nine-tenths of the bill.

Tells of Planned Turnpike
"This Act will affect southern Illinois and the progress of Shawnee Hills Recreation association," he stated. "It will help change the entire economic complexion of southern Illinois."

He spoke of the planned Cairo-to-Chicago turnpike which will take a motorist from here to Chicago.

New York Subway Trains Running Again as 8-Day Strike Ends

NEW YORK (UP)—New York City's subway trains were running on time today. An eight-day strike of motormen, longest and costliest transit tie-up in the city's history, was voted to end at 7:30 Monday night, and the motormen immediately reported back to work.

They had gone on strike at 5 a. m. last Monday, defying a court injunction and the eleventh hour jailing of four top leaders, to protest their forced representation by the giant Transport Workers Union.

The strike cut subway service to less than 50 per cent of normal in its first few days. The search for alternate transportation by five million daily riders snarled the city and its suburbs in a mammoth tangle of surface traffic. And the riders who stayed home caused losses estimated at 25 million dollars to the transit system, the city, and department store Christmas sales.

Stores Open Until 8 Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Monday

Shoppers will find Harrisburg stores open for their convenience on Thursday, Friday, Saturday nights of this week and on Monday night before Christmas.

On the evenings the stores are open, quitting time will be 8 p. m. in the grocery as well as other types of businesses. Then on Christmas Eve stores will close at 5 p. m. except grocery stores, which will close at 5:30.

Harrisburg has decorated for Christmas. On 39 White Way standards are 39 lighted Christmas tree decorations. And on the courtyard are four natural trees, each lighted with ornamental bulbs.

Also, merchants have individual decorations which are proving attractive.

Chain of Auto Collisions on Rt. 34 Near Galatia

A chain of auto collisions resulted early today when a truck dropped a tail gate on Route 34 a mile east of Galatia, and the driver, George Harris, stopped on the pavement to pick it up.

A station wagon driven by Helen E. Mitchell of Galatia, skidded to a stop behind the truck and was struck from the rear by a car driven by Margaret L. Wallace of Galatia, which in turn was struck from the rear by a car driven by Ida Jean Harris of Galatia.

Only person hurt was Clova Harris, Rt. 4 Thompsonville, who was only slightly injured.

Neither the truck nor the driver was hit, but Harris was given a ticket by State Trooper Adolph Sweat for right of way violation. A serious accident could have resulted, Sweat stated.

chance at craft union representation. The TWU won a "winner-take-all" bargaining election for subway and other city transit workers Monday, as had been expected. But Michael J. Quill's big industrial union received less than one-third the eligible vote as compared with about 75 per cent in a similar 1954 election.

A decisive factor in the motormen's back-to-work vote was the promise of Republican State Sen. MacNeil Mitchell (of Manhattan) New York of legislation that would transfer determination of union representation from the city's Transit Authority to the state labor relations board.

MBA President Theodore Loos, who was released from jail with other union officials shortly after the strike ended, said, "it is well it ended the way it did. I'd hate to bear the responsibility of having been victorious over city hall." The men had been imprisoned on suspended 10-day sentences for contempt of court handed down for a strike threat a year ago. As promised by the mayor, the Transit Authority joined the union in applying for their release as soon as the strike ended.

Man With Gun Wound Held in Fairfield Hospital

Companion Arrested; Questioned About St. Louis Robbery

FAIRFIELD, Ill. (UP)—A 34-year-old man with a gun wound of the leg was held under surveillance at the Fairfield Hospital today.

A second man who had been at his bedside was arrested and held on an open charge.

The Wayne County sheriff's office, meanwhile, sought information from St. Louis police concerning a cigar store robbery Friday in which three men took $3,500 at gunpoint. Two St. Louis detectives were dispatched to Fairfield.

One of the robbers was struck by a bullet fired by the owner of the store and dropped $2,400 of the loot as he fled. All three fled in a car.

Fairfield hospital officials reported a man who identified himself as James Thompson, 34, of 128 Church St., Belleville, came to the hospital at 2:30 a. m. Monday with a gunshot wound of the left leg.

Thompson said he had been wounded in a hunting accident.

A man who gave his name as Charles Hughes, Madison, remained at Thompson's bedside Monday. A third man, who identified himself as Edward Fahrenholz, Madison, relieved Hughes at the bedside Monday night.

Hospital authorities became suspicious and called the sheriff who brought in Fahrenholz for questioning.

The store robbed in St. Louis was owned by Glen Sarhage and his father, Edgar. Both opened fire with 22 and .32 caliber pistols at the fleeing bandits. One of the bandits apparently was struck by one of the 14 shots fired.

HTHS Band, Choir To Present Concert Thursday Night

The Band and Choir of HTHS will give a concert in Bonnell gymnasium at 8:15 p. m. Thursday. There are 78 members in the band and 58 voices in the choir.

The band will play: Overture from the "Eroica" by J. Skornicka; "The Christmas Suite," H. L. Walters; "Three Scenes," H. L. Walters and the "First Suite," Gustav Holst.

The choir will sing: "The Christmas Hymn," Jungst; "And The Glory of The Lord," Handel; "Hallelujah" from "Mount of Olives," Beethoven; "Hark Now, O Shepherds," Luvaas; "The Stable Door," Gibbs; "I Wonder as I Wander," Niles; "Sweet Little Jesus Boy," Mac Gimsy; "Carol of the Drum," Davis; "Hospitality Rune," Baugh; and "Rise Up Early," Lountz. Miss Laura Hamilton will sing solo with the choir accompanied by Miss Pamela Reynolds, pianist for the choir.

Marshall C. Cothran is the band leader and John Schork directs the choir.

There will be no admission charge and the public is invited.

Mother of Arthur Street Dies at Robbs

Mrs. Lithia Street, resident of the Robbs community, died Monday morning. Mrs. Street was the mother of Arthur Street of Harrisburg. The body is in the care of the Murrie funeral home of Vienna and was taken to the family residence to lie in state, today.

The funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Simpson Baptist church with Rev. Louie Simmons officiating. Burial will be in the Gilead church cemetery.

Denied New Trial

Wayne Bridges, found guilty by a county court jury of a liquor charge on Nov. 22, Monday was denied a new trial by Judge Traflet Dennis, who set his fine at $200 and costs.

Dennis set Bridges' appeal bond at $500 and stayed execution of the fine during the appeal period.

NO TIME FOR TALK—Alone and guilty, Dave Beck, Teamster union president, beat a hasty retreat down a corridor of the county building in Seattle after a jury found him guilty of grand larceny in the sale of a Teamster owned automobile. He refused to discuss the trial with newsmen. (NEA Telephoto)

Atlas Fired

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UP)—The United States successfully launched an Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile today — a war weapon capable of dropping hydrogen bombs on an enemy target oceans away and a peacetime prospect for orbiting an American satellite.

The Pentagon announced the Atlas had been fired successfully—in the third attempt to send up the "Big A"—and said it traveled "several hundred miles" to land in the prescribed target area.

"This was a limited range test of several hundred miles," a spokesman said of the missile which has a range of up to 5,000 miles.

There was no elaboration on the distance of "several hundred miles."

It was noted, however, that in testing big military missiles it is not unusual for short range flights to be conducted before the missile is put through all of its paces.

After emerging from heavy clouds the Atlas, a thing of impressive beauty, zoomed into the blue high in the sun-kissed skies.

The 90-foot Atlas, trailing a tail of orange flame, was clearly visible to beach observers long after it broke from its earthly confines, seemingly with reluctance in its slow departure, and departed on its course down the Atlantic tracking range.

There was no earth satellite in this missile, which still is being

24 Boys Presented Gifts at Rotary Christmas Party

Twenty-four boys from the Junior high school and the Dorrisville grade school were guests at a Christmas party given by the Rotary club Monday at noon. Each boy was presented with a Christmas present from the club.

Boys attending from the Dorrisville grade school were: Larry Osborne, Gary Osborne, Troy Smock, Bob Thompson and Charles Turner; from the Junior high school were: Charles Anglin, Jerry Crowder, Ronnie Crowder, Henry Smirnes, Val Vinyard, Jackie Roberts, Edward Glascock, James Graves, Phillip Dorris, Danny Reed, Calvin Gowen, Billy Huff, Everett Uzzle, Jerry Stricklin, Emery Head, Jackie Hetterscheidt, Curtis Reed, Norman Alexander and Dean Angelly.

Thieves Break Into Tobacco Truck

City police today reported that a panel tobacco sales truck had been broken into last night and that thirty cartons of cigarettes were taken.

They reported John Stump, salesman, had his truck in a locked garage at the home of his mother at 211 West O'Gara. Thieves got into the garage through a window, then broke a glass in the truck so they could reach in and unlock the vehicle.

Agreement Is Near On Two-Way Program; Ike Meets Adenauer, Zoli

PARIS (UP)—The NATO powers were reported today preparing a two-day program that calls for cautious new talks with the Soviet Union and a reinforcement of the Atlantic alliance with missiles and other modern weapons.

High diplomatic sources disclosed that agreement was near on a program under which NATO will:

—Sound out the Russians through diplomatic channels on whether they are prepared to make a deal with the West as Premier Nikolai Bulganin hinted in his recent flurry of notes to Western leaders.

—Step up the alliance's defensive might with the latest weapons, including a stockpile of U. S. supplied nuclear weapons and the establishment of missile bases in Europe.

Reaffirm Disarmament Policy

The disclosure followed a meeting of the 15 nations' foreign ministers this morning and separate private talks President Eisenhower had with Italian Premier Adone Zoli and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

The sources said the foreign ministers reaffirmed NATO's previous policy on Germany and disarmament. This calls for a four-power agreement on German reunification in freedom and peace by way of free elections. It also supports the Western disarmament proposals made during the United Nations subcommittee talks in London.

On the Middle East situation, the foreign ministers of Turkey, Greece and Great Britain were among the speakers. The foreign ministers' session agreed that while the Middle East is outside the NATO orbit, the alliance still should feel "responsible" for it by at least aiding Middle East countries economically.

Both Zoli and Adenauer said their discussions with the President were most cordial.

Deny Missile Rift

The aged West German leader told the United Press afterwards that "There is complete agreement between the United States and Germany on this conference."

His chief press spokesman, Felix von Eckhardt, said this agreement included the troublesome issue of U. S. missile bases in Europe.

Eckhardt also flatly denied reports that Adenauer was leading a "revolt" against the United States on the missiles issue.

"There is no such rift," Eckhardt said. U. S. and British delegation spokesmen joined in the denial.

However, there was no denying the fact that Britain, Canada,

Denmark, Belgium, Norway and West Germany called in varying degrees in opening remarks Monday for further exploration of Soviet intention in Moscow's latest peace bid to the West. Several of them also urged a delay in setting up missile bases in Western Europe.

Eckhardt said there was no question of Germany "going it alone" in contacting Moscow on the Bulgarian notes. He said the fact was that Adenauer and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles agreed on the treatment of these letters on Saturday when they first conferred for about two hours. Adenauer's presentation of the German suggestions in his speech Monday already was part of the NATO consultation.

Booster Military Position

However, diplomatic sources said the two-way program now shaping up was summarized by British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan Monday. At that time

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: President Eisenhower's Greatest Gamble: Hazards Of 1957 Invasion More Difficult Than Ike's 1944 Invasion; Ike Is Ready To Die With Boots On.

WASHINGTON. — President Eisenhower has begun the greatest gamble of his life. Thirteen years ago he took another great gamble when he ordered Allied forces across the channel into exactly the same area he is invading today.

That was considered one of the greatest invasions of all time. But the gamble this week is more dangerous.
When he invaded France, June 6, 1944, General Eisenhower had spent months building up a massive attack force. It had been planned by the best men in the American Army and Navy. Furthermore, it was not his decision. So if he failed, those in the high command, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Winston Churchill, would take the blame. Furthermore, he did not sail in the vanguard of the attacking fleet. He remained in supreme headquarters in England until it was known the invasion would be successful.

This time, however, Dwight D. Eisenhower must take full responsibility for failure. This time he is on hand to struggle with the initial holding forces. This time preparations have been almost nil, no great body of experts prepared the preliminary plans. Only one cabinet officer went in advance to scout hostile territory. Eisenhower himself was ill, did not prepare to head this invasion until the very end.

Nevertheless, he invades in order to hold secure that which he conquered 13 years ago. It is a heroic gamble taken with the courage of an old soldier.

OLD SOLDIER'S FATALISM
As an old soldier, Dwight D. Eisenhower has decided to die with his boots on. There is no question of his courage. Some diplomats do question his wisdom. They have learned of a remark made to his doctors and associates: "I am ready to do whatever the fellows want me to do."

However, it's the job of a president not to be ordered into battle but to order others. It's the job of a president not to do what the fellows want him to do, but to tell the fellows what they should do.

What Dwight D. Eisenhower plans to use as his chief weapon is his charm, his ability to persuade, his contagious smile, his knack of winning friends, his persuasive power to make people do what he wants them to do. This is what he will throw in the battle against the trained diplomats, the politicians, and the prejudices of Europe.

He looks upon the NATO conference as a sort of political revival meeting with himself as a statesmanlike Billy Graham. He will use these spiritual, though somewhat 19th-century weapons at a time when Khrushchev and Bulganin have scored their greatest scientific victories and offered some very real concessions to the West.

THE HEDGEROWS OF 1957

The odds against Dwight D. Eisenhower in this, his second invasion of Europe, are terrific. They are worse than the hedgerows of Normandy which protected Nazi troops in 1944. Here are some of them:

1. The continental nations are increasingly suspicious of the Anglo-American alliance. West Germany, France, Belgium feel that they are the tail of the American-British dog; that they will merely be the targets if Russia attacks missile bases, with no control over when the missiles shall be fired.

2. There's increasing difficulty between England and Germany. Britain wants payments from Germany for the cost of her troops in Germany. Germany considers these payments much too high. Basically, the trouble runs even deeper. Germany is now the most prosperous country in Europe. Its people worry about the possibility of Russian missile bases just a few miles away in Poland. They also want the unification of Germany. They figure they can't get it unless they stay out of the battle between the U. S. A. and the USSR. Germany is becoming increasingly neutralist.

3. The Dutch want to discuss Indonesia. They want to link SEATO, the Asiatic NATO, with the European NATO. Why should they help defend the West, they argue, when their whole economic security is being undermined in the East? Secretary Dulles, however, is opposed.

BULGANIN'S ASTUTE OFFERS

4. Who will get the missile bases? It's been decided in advance that England will get four missile squadrons and France two. But Eisenhower also hopes to put bases in Norway, Denmark, Germany, other countries. They are skeptical—so skeptical that there will be no decision. The buck will be passed to a committee.

5. Will we talk to Russia? This will be perhaps the biggest problem of all. Russia is playing her cards with great skill. The Bulgarian letter placed on the doorstep of each nation, just before the Paris conference, was a masterpiece. It offered great inducement to a war-weary Europe—possibly a real chance for peace.

Most of the European nations want to sit down and talk with Russia. Secretary Dulles doesn't. Eisenhower will have to decide between the leaders of Europe and his secretary of state.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D. D. (Written for NEA Service)

The radio, television and newspapers are filled with Christmas and with the messages of peace and joy to the world. There is strife in many parts of the world, yet the hope of peace is real among the followers of Christianity. Many millions have faith that love will win out over hatred, and that mankind will learn to live together.

The example of Christ still stands before us as a reality which can settle misunderstanding and conflict. Unselfishness must prevail if the powers of evil are to be washed away by the saving waters of Christ.

We must prepare for this Christmas in our hearts as well as with our material gifts. We must believe the deep message of the angels as well as feel the thrill of the music when we sing "Joy to the World."

Yule Cards Convert to Decorations

Youngsters can hardly wait for the mailman at Christmas time. And for good reason. They'll have cards to play with.

As gay, colorful greetings, Christmas cards this year convert to trees, or little girls or animals. These stand up to decorate a doll house or inhabit any young child's imagined world. Some are cut to hang from the Christmas tree. A youngster keeps busy adding his cards to the tree after the postman rings.

All that glitters is not gold but a child's signature may be. An American Greetings box assortment includes a sheet of specially treated gold foil. A youngster writes his name on the foil, leaving a signature in gold on the card to his little pals or grandma.

Of course, there will be colorful coin-holder Christmas cards for adults to send to youngsters.

In buying cards for little friends, remember they like bright, strong colors. And they associate themselves more with animals than with most people. Santa Claus is the most popular subject. Snowmen, fireside scenes of stockings, candy canes and animals, animals, animals thrill the tiny ones.

WHAT, Ho? More ties. Wools feature diagonal stripes, blue plaid, blue tweed and horizontal stripes.

Social and Personal Items

Miss Martha Louise Joyner, Freddie Tim Rister Exchange Vows at Raleigh

Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Tim Rister (Foster Studio Photo)

Miss Martha Louise Joyner, daughter of Michael Joyner of Raleigh, and Freddie Tim Rister, Gary, Ind., son of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Rister, were married at 7:30 o'clock Nov. 30 in the Raleigh Baptist church. The Rev. Todd Taylor performed the double-ring ceremony before the church altar decorated with gladioli and tall candelabras of burning tapers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a wedding gown of white lace and net over taffeta, fashioned with a high neckline and long sleeves pointed at the hands. The full ballerina-length skirt was three tiered, each tier having a deep lace border. Her chapel length veil of illusion was secured to a circlet of pearl trimmed lace and carried a cascade bouquet centered with a large orchid.

Miss Peggy Raley served as maid of honor and wore a ballerina length dress of tangerine taffeta. She carried gold and brown chrysanthemums.

Ronald Aaron of West Frankfort acted as best man for the bridegroom.

Charles Maloney and Billy Joe Patton were ushers.

The bride's stepmother, Mrs. Nina Joyner, wore a coral colored knitted suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The mother of the bridegroom chose for her son's wedding a dress of black and white with black accessories, and she wore a white carnation corsage.

Miss Beth Miner sang "True

Christmas Dinner Party By Baptist Men's Class

Wives of the members of the "Ready Pals" class of the First Baptist church were entertained with a Christmas dinner party on Friday, Dec. 13, at the Education building. Thirty-six were present to enjoy the turkey dinner which was ready to serve when they arrived, without any work on the part of the ladies.

After dinner an informal program of games and entertainment was held. Bob Burnett, president of the class, presided, and Cecil Pulliam, first vice-president, had planned the program which was conducted by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Porter. Mr. Porter performed about 40 minutes of magical entertainment.

The centerpiece was composed of Christmas balls, frosted cedar and a large candle.

All but one of the class members were present.

Rev. and Mrs. Joe Morman, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stump, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Porter, and Mrs. Fritts, daughter of W. O. Brooks, were especially invited guests. The Porters, who reside in Santa Monica, Calif., and were visiting in the home of his brother, C. C. Porter, left Sunday for Nashville, Tenn., and Jacksonville, Fla. They will remain in Florida until mid-January, visiting his sister, Mrs. Jessie Winhaus, and family.

Calendar Of Meetings

Midweek service at the First Methodist church will be held in Hall chapel Wednesday at 7 p. m. The chancel choir will practice immediately following this service at 8 o'clock in the sanctuary.

Love," "I'll Walk Beside You" and "Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Madge Daugherty at the organ. Mrs. Daugherty also played the wedding marches.

There was a reception in the lower rooms of the church immediately following the wedding and the hostesses for the reception were Mrs. John Slightom, Miss Laura Rale and Mrs. John Peyton. Mrs. Ona Florence Maloney attended the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Rister left for a honeymoon trip through the Southern states and are residing in Ridgway since their return.

The bride was graduated from HTHS and is the receptionist for Dr. John Slightom.

Mr. Rister was graduated from Ridgway high school class of 1952 and is a farmer.

Presbyterian Primary Dept. Meets For Christmas Party

The Primary department of the First Presbyterian church met for its annual Christmas party at 4:30 p. m. Thursday. The boys and girls sang Christmas carols and included "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer" and "Jingle Bells." There were games and winners were Carl Hansen, Kathy Moore, Robert Wilson, Cyria Hollingsworth, Bob McGehee, Sally McGehee, Kathy Doerge and Susie Melton. Gift were exchanged by the children around the Christmas tree.

Refreshments were served of hot dogs, potato chips, Christmas cookies and soft drinks. Children attending were: Danny Duckworth, Judy James, Cyria Hollingsworth, Warren Hollingsworth, Jimmy Jarrell, Ellen Stump, Sally McGehee, Susie Melton, Bob McGehee, Davie Hansen, Lynn Sullivan, Kathy Moore, Carol Wilson, Robert Wilson, Mike Gidcumb, Connie Jo Tanner, Mark Neihaus, Chris Neihaus, Doug Bellamy, Cam Bellamy, Greg Morse, Karen Morse, Johnny Jarrell, John Matthews, Mark Simmons, Danny Miley, Avalée Jands, Kathy Doerge, Marsha Boyd, Carl Hansen and teachers: Mrs. John C. Utter, Mrs. Lonnie Lamkin, Mrs. Frank Jarrell, Mrs. David Simmons, Mrs. Joe Hollingsworth and Mrs. Gene Neihaus. Guests were: Mrs. Margaret Bellamy, Mrs. Ann McGehee, Donnie Utter and Margaret Hollingsworth.

St. Mary's Discussion Club Holds Final Meeting Of Series

The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine discussion club of St. Mary's Catholic church, under the leadership of Mrs. Joe Matthews, held the final meeting of the fall series in the dining hall of the church Saturday. A potluck supper was served and children of the members exchanged Christmas gifts. Father T. G. Bruns was the guest of honor.

Those attending were: Father Bruns, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Matthews and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Boyce and children, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Raben and children, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Tempeo and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Pickford and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Steinmarch and children.

Jim Matthews and Benjie Steinmarch were especially invited guests.

Christmas Operetta 'Santa and The Space Men' at Carrier Mills Grade School Dec. 19

The Carrier Mills grade school will present its annual Christmas operetta, "Santa and The Space Men," Thursday, Dec. 19, at 7 p. m. under the direction of Mrs. Rena Brackney, the music director.

Santa gets kidnapped by a red man from Mars. The children are afraid they will have no Santa this year, when back comes Santa, after having visited all the planets. He explains that all the planets in the universe want Santa. They hold a Universal Court and come to the decision that it is possible for Santa to go all over the universe on Christmas Eve. So Santa becomes a Universal Santa.

Bible Class Christmas Party

In Home of Mrs. Rose McIlrath
The Ladies' Bible class of the Dorrisville Baptist church held a Christmas party in the home of Mrs. Rose McIlrath, Thursday evening. The group sang Christmas carols and Mrs. Roy Hudnell read the 2nd chapter of Luke for the devotion. Mrs. William Noonan was in charge of the entertainment for the party.

The door prize was awarded to Mrs. Rosa Stricklin and Mrs. Boyd Langford won an activity prize. Others attending were Mrs. Lon Vaughn, Mrs. Ralph Stout, Mrs. Mae Holland, Mrs. Mary Wilkinson, Mrs. Thelma Dunning, Mrs. Harry Bush, Mrs. Clarence Dixon, Mrs. Iley McDowell, Mrs. Nell Pate, Mrs. Deloris Wiley and visitors, Mrs. Frank McIlrath and Mrs. Seelye Vaughn.

Christmas Party In Home

Of Mary Shell For Home Bureau
The Buena Vista Home Bureau unit met in the home of Mary Shell for its Christmas party. The major lesson was presented by Barbara McConnell. Roll call was answered by each member with a suggestion about a Christmas card. There was an exchange of gifts and refreshments were served. The January meeting was announced and will be held in the home of Barbara McConnell.

Those present were: Nell Denney, Lea Travelstead, Lois Buchanan, Barbara McConnell, a visitor and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Link Rann, Harrisburg, were guests of Capt. and Mrs. Max Frye in Chester Sunday, at a dinner party where there were guests from Harrisburg, Mt. Auburn and Taylorville.

Mrs. S. B. Goodge and grandson Kenneth Straw, arrived today from Knoxville, Tenn., to visit her sister, Mrs. M. D. Nesler, and her brothers, George O. Davenport and R. C. Davenport and their families in a pre-holiday visit.

COOL CHEESE

Gift packages of cheese may stump a housewife. Cheese should be kept refrigerated for best results. Keep in covered container wrapped in foil, waxed paper or cellophane. This prevents absorption of odors from other foods and loss of moisture.

Toys Borrow From the Past

Antiquarian lore gets a spot in toyland this year, alongside atomic energy kits and rocket launchers.

A ranch phone modeled after an early design of Alexander Graham Bell's invention will be featured alongside of sleek dial phones in pastel shades.

The colonial four poster bed has varied toyland counterparts. The Toy Guidance Council reports

Miniature grandfather clocks and captains' chairs provide graceful reminder of the nostalgic past. In contrast will be miniature ranch houses filled with sectional furniture geared to today's functional living.

There's a drum model inspired by Revolutionary War styles. The covered wagon, the buggy, the sailship and the wheel-propelled

Christmas is Good Time for Appliance Shopping

With the increased interest in budgeting, Christmas has become one of the most important seasons for appliance buying.

As a vital part of the annual pattern of purchasing, it is then that the family gets together and decides to buy a present for "all of us."

With appliances leading in this category of buying, home renovation such as added rooms or refurbishing follow closely.

Manufacturers of appliances both large and small, are aware of this trend. Never do the latest models look as glamorous or as there a wider selection to choose from. In many cases, yearly changes are made so that the latest merchandise reaches the market just before Christmas.

This concentration of interest in appliances and other large purchases makes the Christmas season a good time to buy. Customers are assured that they will see the very latest developments in the science of homemaking. The supplies are fresh.

Appliance stores, hardware emporiums and the department stores are exciting centers for family shoppers in the Christmas season.

Card of Thanks

BRADY—We wish to take this opportunity to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness during our recent bereavement. The Brady Family. *144-1

REEDER—We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings received from many friends during our bereavement in the death of our husband and father, Walter Reeder. Mrs. Ruby Reeder. James Reeder and family. *144-1

In Memoriam In loving memory of our precious brother, Ray Staley, whom God called away, Dec. 16, 1955: Two long years have passed away, Since that sad day, But in our hearts you'll always stay. Some may think the wound is healed, But Oh the sadness in our heart concealed. Sadly missed by his sisters, Mrs. Rachael and Mae. 144-1

In Memoriam In memory of Alice Hawkins, who passed away Dec. 18, 1943, 14 years ago: Do not ask us how we miss her, For there is such a vacant place. Often we think we hear her footsteps Or see her smiling face. Friends may think the wound is healed, But they little know the sorrow That is in our heart concealed. Sadly missed by her daughters Mrs. Rachael and Mae. 144-1

Navy Announces College Plan to Train Scientists

Five hundred officers trained in the field of science will be added to the ranks of the Navy and Marine Corps annually under a new educational program announced today by Secretary of the Navy Thomas S. Gates. Beginning with the school year 1958-1959 that number of enlisted men will be enrolled in civilian institutions of higher learning four-year courses leading to a degree of Bachelor of Science and to commissions in the Navy.

Emphasis in their studies will be placed on mathematics and the physical sciences. During summer vacation periods, the students will be assigned to Navy laboratories and other scientific establishments to study application of the sciences.

The basis of selection of enlisted men for this higher study will be intelligence and aptitude. Those considered qualified but who lack sufficient high school credits for college entrance will be given opportunity to earn those credits.

Students will receive the pay and allowances of their rates while attending college. The Navy Department will pay costs of their education. They will be required to remain on active duty as officers for a period equal to the time they are enrolled in the program.

A selection board consisting of naval officers and civilians experienced in the field of education will be convened to pass upon applicants for the new program. Those selected will be offered for enrollment in colleges and universities subject to the rules of the institutions concerned.

Girl Scouting

Brownie Scout Troop 275 Holds Investiture Ceremony

Brownie Scout Troop 275 held an investiture ceremony in the McKinley school at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday. Members are: Karen Kay Cannon, Barbara Kaye Cotton, Dwan Kay Fritch, Cindy Gibbons, Licy Ann Gidcumb, Janice Ann Mitchell, Cynthia Susan Rose, Karen Lynn Riden, Becky Sue Stallings, and Teresa Ann Thurmond.

Mrs. Dwan Fritch is the leader, and Mrs. Robert Rose the assistant leader of the troop. Refreshments were served to the new second school grade members and to the visiting parents and grandparents.

Why the Big M means the Most for your Money

Riding is better than reading... come in today...
ask for a demonstration drive!

Don't miss the big television hit, "THE ED SULLIVAN SHOW,"
Sunday evening, 7:00 to 8:00. Station KFVS-TV, Channel 12.

WILEY MOTOR COMPANY

205 SOUTH GRANGER

MORE BEAUTY. Mercury dramatically translates today's new clean and uncluttered look into today's most beautiful motorcar. It's Clean Line Modern Styling—no frills, no fins; just trim, crisp lines that will stay in style longer.

MORE COMFORT. The Big M is spectacular in size on the outside—up to 18.3 feet long, over 6 feet wide—beautifully comfortable within. On any road, you ride in a soft, spacious, quiet world of luxury.

MORE POWER. There is up to 360 hp to give you all the performance you'll ever want. Yet the revolutionary Cool-Power Marauder V-8's are designed to deliver more power from less fuel.

MORE RESPONSE. It's amazing to find such immediate response in a car so big. Mercury takes the tussle out of traffic, the lean out of curves, the slant out of hills—and all the effort out of driving.

MORE FEATURES. You can have motoring miracles everywhere you look! Brakes that adjust themselves, automatic power lubrication, a Speed-Limit Safety Monitor. And with new Multi-Drive Merc-O-Matic, there is even a choice of 3 driving ranges.

MORE MODELS TO CHOOSE FROM. There are 20 beautiful Big M's—every model and price range you could ask for. Six handsome station wagons that lead their field in sales.

MORE VALUE. The Big M costs a lot less than it looks. In fact, some models of the so-called "low-priced 3" cost more than a Mercury. Come and see why The Big M means the most for your money.

Gray Discusses School Needs in Forestry Areas

Congressman Kenneth J. Gray, working in cooperation with L. P. Neff, local forester, met with county superintendents of schools representing Saline, Gallatin, Pope, Johnson, Hardin, Massac and Franklin counties last Friday in the office of C. R. Gardner, Saline county superintendent of schools.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the problem created by the National Forest owning acreage in school districts. A percentage of timber sales are supplied in lieu of taxes.

Congressman Gray said "he was vitally concerned with the financial plight of the school districts in counties where the National Shawnee Forest is located.

"The National Shawnee Forest," he continued, "has been and will continue to be a great asset to southern Illinois but has forced a hardship on school districts due to taxable lands taken from them and placed in government ownership. Public law 870 Section 2 may provide some assistance, if not I plan to ask the congress for remedial legislation. To obtain this goal we will need the support of local, state and national education associations who are vitally concerned with this problem."

Gardner pointed out there was 10,728 acres of National Forest land located in the southern part of Saline County which effects Independence Community Consolidated School District No. 53 and the Harrisburg Township High School District No. 101.

Two School Districts Vote Tax Boosts

MARION, Ill. (UP) — Two high school districts in southern Illinois have voted to increase tax rates. Tamaroa approved an increase of from 75 to 96 cents per $100 assessed valuation. Most of the expected $11,000 of additional revenue will be used for operating purposes.

Cartersville High School District voters approved a similar increase for its educational rate. It will be used for teacher salaries, equipment and supplies.

Fire Destroys Golconda Home

GOLCONDA, Ill. — The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Vanhaber was completely destroyed by fire at noon Monday.

The fire started with an overheated coal stove in the living room and the Vanabers' year-old grandson, who was playing in a crib in the living room was saved by the mother, Mrs. Wanda Smock, who, with the Vanabers, was in the kitchen and heard the child scream.

This is the second home destroyed by fire here in the past six days.

The volunteer fire department was called but the house was so far gone on its arrival that they could do nothing but prevent the fire from spreading to nearby homes.

Seek $1,000 in Circuit Court Lawsuit

Everett and Lena Shriver have filed a circuit court lawsuit seeking $1,000 damages from James Gilliam, doing business as the Gilliam Oil Co.

The complaint, filed by Atty. Lloyd H. Melton, says the Gilliam drilled for oil on their premises in Section 26, Raleigh township, and the $1,000 is asked for damage the Shrivers said was done to their property at the time of the operation.

President Says He Feels Better Than in Long Time

By MERRIMAN SMITH
United Press White House Writer
PARIS (UP)—President Eisenhower said today he felt better than he had "in a long, long time."

The President made the comment on a visit to his old command at Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers in Europe at Louveciennes.

He appeared in good shape and good spirits despite his cancellation of Monday night's NATO dinner because of fatigue.

His complexion was ruddy with the wind and his step was vigorous. His speech was like a talk to the troops, friendly and homespun and with none of the solemnity reserved for state occasions. However, his manner was serious.

He told a group of SHAPE officers and their families, "I haven't felt better in a long, long time than I have this morning, seeing you people."

His physician, Maj. Gen. Howard McC. Snyder, told reporters he thought the President today was in "pretty good shape."

"If he can sit in one of those five-hour sessions (of the NATO council) as he did yesterday, I would say he is fine," Snyder said. "He sets a good pace for a man who sat through that session."

The President was up at 8 a. m., had what Press Secretary James Hagerty described as a "big breakfast," and then held a series of conferences with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, Italian Premier Adone Zoli and German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

"I found him in excellent physical condition," Adenauer said. "He seemed even better than the last time I saw him last May in Washington."

NATO Powers to Approve 2-Way Program

he said: "In Sir Winston Churchill's words: 'We arm to parley.' We shall not parley successfully unless we arm effectively."

In effect the West's leaders feel they must go ahead with strengthening their military position in order to talk peace with Moscow on a plane of equality.

The source said that on the question of East-West talks the 15 NATO nations would seek to find out what the Russians have in mind by approaching them through diplomatic channels. This was suggested first Monday by Adenauer, and was supported by several of the other delegates.

This is one of the questions that will be discussed by the NATO foreign ministers at their second closed meeting Wednesday morning. They will then report their recommendations—which will not be made public to the summit leaders in the afternoon.

The sources stressed that any moves towards Moscow will be made with the full approval of all NATO members.

On the military side, the sources added, NATO will push ahead with plans to equip itself with the most modern weapons possible.

Virgil Manker Rites Wednesday

Masonic rites will be observed by Galatia Masonic lodge No. 648. The body will lie in state at the Courtney funeral home in Galatia until time for the funeral.

Three Resolutions By Shawnee Hills Groups

cago in about four hours and 15 minutes.

"That means they can get down here in the same length of time, too, and I know that the Shawnee Hills Recreation association will be ready for them."

He said that a contract will be let in about two months to build a section of this road from the Marion Veterans hospital south to near Goreville.

"In three or four years," he predicted, "I believe southern Illinois will be getting tangible benefits from the road."

He said he believed that the National Park Service can be of help to Old Shawneetown. "I believe we are read for a survey and if the service feels it is significant enough to warrant spending money on it, they will make recommendations. However, they must be sure if it is of national importance before they will do it."

Facing New Era

Gray spoke of his Saline River Drainage Project bill and said "I believe we've the bill where it will be palatable to the President."

He ended his remarks on a grave note, telling of their war threat and the possible dreadful results.

"Right now there is a greater need of groups like yours trying to promote our potential," he stated. "We're facing a new era that will require the co-operation of all our people."

It was the final meeting for the old officers, headed by President George Scherrer of Shawneetown. At the next meeting, the time and place to be announced later, Ray Mittendorf of Metropolis will preside as president.

Louis Aaron of Harrisburg is the new vice president and William Rottman of Golconda is the holdover treasurer.

Monday night's dinner meeting opened with selections by the girls' choir of Shawneetown high school.

Douglas Says Air Force Expects Operational ICBM In Two Years

WASHINGTON (UP)—Secretary of Air James H. Douglas said today the Air Force expects to have an operational, intercontinental ballistic missile within two years.

Douglas said the Air Force will have an operational unit of intermediate range missile by December, 1958.

"I hope it will not be a year after that date" when the ICBM will be in operation, Douglas told the Senate Preparedness subcommittee.

Earlier, Douglas said he expected an operational ICBM in the "not too far distant future."

Gen. Thomas D. White, Air Force chief of staff, said "we hope to have an ICBM very soon" and "are working very hard on it." He

Adlai Resumes Role of Critic

CHICAGO (UP) — Adlai E. Stevenson resumed his role as a critic of the Eisenhower Administration with a speech blaming the GOP for the U. S. missile lag and for failure to match Soviet progress in winning over underdeveloped nations.

Stevenson, who recently wound up a stint as State Department consultant on the NATO conference, urged drastic U. S. action to restore confidence among NATO countries in "America's good faith and determination to come to the aid of her Allies, even at the risk of direct nuclear retaliation."

Stevenson, twice defeated Democratic presidential candidate and titular leader of his party, spoke Monday before the Illinois division of the American Civil Liberties Union.

Stevenson also said the nation's greatest challenge was in Russia's rapid progress in wooing the poor and politically uncommitted peoples of the world. He said "that is the hot war now," and charged the U. S. is "losing ground rapidly" in the battle.

Looking at Sports

BY BILL MELTON

Ken Hamilton

The busiest sportscaster in southern Illinois is Ken Hamilton of WEBQ.

Not long ago, Nov. 26 to be exact, Hamilton completed his 1,000th sportscast when he aired the Carrier Mills-at-Vienna basketball game. And he is still going strong.

In the string of a 1,000-plus sport casts are many basketball and foot ball games, plus a few baseball and softball contests. In the early days Ken called some diamond games, but in the past few years has confined his activities to the gridiron and hardwood.

Ken began his sportscasting in January 1948 when he called the Crossville at Eldorado basketball game.

WEBQ had been broadcasting some athletic events prior to this time, confining the activities to Harrisburg's home games. But station manager I. M. Taylor desired to expand the program and Ken was given the assignment. And he surely has carried it out.

Ken planned to broadcast four games during the latter part of the 1948 basketball season, but finished by putting 11 games on the air and in the spring aired several Harrisburg baseball games.

In the fall of 1948 Ken worked out a schedule that included all of Harrisburg's and several of Eldorado's home football games and the same pattern was followed in basketball.

At the start of the 1949 football season Hamilton started going out-of-town, putting all Harrisburg games on the air and filling in with other games on available dates.

The year 1950 saw two additional "firsts" for Hamilton. That spring he made his first trip to the University of Illinois to broadcast state tournament basketball. And in the fall of 1950 he broadcast his first SIU football game.

And these two programs were expanded later. In the beginning only a part of the state tourney was carried over WEBQ, but in the past few years Hamilton and his partner, Elmer Gladson, have brought listeners of this area the complete tourney.

And in 1954 they began to make trips with the SIU football team. A lot of football and basketball games are beamed out to WEBQ listeners—from 25 to 27 football games and 75 to 80 basketball games per season.

Many stations still operate as WEBQ did years ago—only home games and confine their football to maybe five games a season. Ken brought this many in one busy weekend, typical of the windup of the year, when football is pushing to a close to get out of the way of the onrushing basketball season.

Early in November Ken's broadcast schedule went something like this—Nov. 7, Metropolis at Eldorado in football; Nov. 9, a SIU afternoon home football game, and Nov. 9, Harrisburg-at-Benton, varsity football at night; Nov. 11, Eldorado-at-Cairo, afternoon football, and Nov. 11, Benton-at-Harrisburg in freshman-sophomore night football; Nov. 12, Shawneetown-at-Ridgway in start of basketball season. Five football games in a five day period and a cage contest on the sixth day.

Ken, an Eldorado native, came to WEBQ 18 years ago, has been broadcasting ball games ten years. He was away from WEBQ four years for military service during World War II.

Elmer Gladson, now a regular part of the sportscasting team, has been on the air for practically all games the past seven years. Elmer, also a native of neighboring Eldorado, is engineer and handles most of the commercials. Although Ken pioneered the extensive sportscasting program for WEBQ and has been on the air the longer, it is now pretty much a team affair—Ken and Elmer.

I have made several trips with the sportscasters and a couple of years or more ago, coming home from Fairfield, I was complaining of being tired from running the sidelines during the high-scoring football game and commented that "it would be nice to just sit in a booth and get the job done." Ken suggested that sometime he would trade places with me, he would write the account for The Daily Register and I could do the talking at the mike. But it was never mentioned again—Guess Ken figured he had built up a big audience over the years and no need to lose it in one night.

My very best wishes for more

Herrin, West Frankfort One-Two In Ratings

By United Press

Herrin clung to its top spot and Rockford East, Edwardsville and Maywood Proviso moved into the top 15 in the United Press high school basketball ratings this week.

The "Sweet Sixteen" coaches' board dropped Paris, Belleville and Elgin out of the top 15, and Ottawa and Galesburg skidded lower after weekend losses.

West Frankfort, which meets Herrin Jan. 3 in a showdown of southern strength, climbed into second spot. Quincy Notre Dame advanced to third.

Pekin jumped all the way from 11th to fourth, and Mount Vernon moved up from eighth to fifth.

Rock Island advanced from a tie for ninth to sixth. Jacksonville, which dropped a 1-point decision to Edwardsville for its first defeat, dropped to seventh.

Chicago Heights (Bloom) was eighth, Champaign moved up to ninth, and newcomer Proviso, which toppled previously unbeaten Evanston, was 10th.

Rockford East moved into the 11th spot, and another undefeated newcomer, Edwardsville, was 12th.

Ottawa was 13th, Evanston 14th and Galesburg 15th.

Letters Presented to Players at Annual Eldorado Football Banquet

New Co-Captains, McMahon and Fowler, Are Introduced

Twenty-five varsity football letters were awarded by Coach Al Adams to highlight the annual football banquet at the Eldorado Township high school Monday evening. Included in the group of letter winners were twelve seniors, twelve juniors and one sophomore.

Following the letter presentations Coach Adams introduced next year's co-captains — Mike McMahon and Jack Fowler. Fowler, a fullback, and McMahon, tackle, were elected last week by the returning varsity squad members.

The banquet, officially closing the 1957 football season for the unbeaten Eagles, was attended by a record crowd, including representatives from two universities.

Bill Brown, former West Frankfort high school coach and presently assistant athletic director at SIU, and head football coach Jim Culivan and backfield coach Bill Ferguson from Murray represented their schools. Members of the University of Illinois coaching staff had accepted an invitation and were flying down but were forced to turn back by the inclement weather.

Present Jacket to Manager

Receiving varsity letters were seniors Carl Justice, Bernard Goodley, Fred Pool, Bob Holman, Jerry Rains, Bill Smith, Jay Flanders, Parvin Coker, Leonard Willis, Gary Reasons and 1957 Co-Captains Jim Woods and Lester Feunquay.

Juniors Tom Baugher, Chuck McCallister, Ronnie Rains, Ronnie Hall, John Everett, Larry Miller, Lovie Bertino, Ralph Adams, Randy Seates, Gary Bray, Co-Captains-Elect Mike McMahon and Jack Fowler.

Miss Jean Milligan Crowned Queen As Equality Troupes Thompsonville

Miss Jean Milligan was crowned 1957-58 basketball queen at the Equality high school gym Monday night following which the Cardinals romped over the Thompsonville Tigers, 82-57, for their sixth win. Queen Jean occupied the throne and her court of honor also was in the limelight on the decorated stage through the entire game.

Coach Tony Franc's fighting lads had very little difficulty holding off the invaders after getting off to a slow start. They led 20-10 at the first quarter stop, 38-27 at half time and 58-40 going into the final canto. Their lead was seriously threatened only once, after three minutes of action, in the second canto the Tigers had racked up 11 points while holding the host club to two and the scoreboard read 22-21, Thompsonville. A quick change to a man-to-man defense slowed down the red hot shooting of Dwight Smothers who had 33 counters for the evening and the Cardinals were in control the rest of the way.

Coach Franc substituted freely and nine players got in on the scoring. Bernie Emery led the Equality pointmakers with 20 markers and three others, Gordon Smith, Jim Carnett and Dave Beverly, also made the double figure scoring column with Smith being outstanding in the rebounding department.

Equality also won the preliminary contest 63-27.

The impressive coronation ceremonies were held between the two games with Jimmy Coyle serving as master of ceremonies.

Miss Patsy Folks was at the piano for the recessional march and an honor guard was formed the length of the gym for the passing of the queen, her court, the escorts, crown and basketball bearers, flower girls and train bearer.

The procession was headed by the cheerleaders, Patti Gullledge, Minnie Moore, Roxie Mahan, Brenda Colbert and Ginny Freeman.

The honor guards were Carolyn Barnett and Jimmy Carnett, Eloise Aud and Ron Thompson, Flora Rushing and Emery Henshaw, Pat

Mahon and Jack Fowler;

Co-captains Feunquay and Woods presented a wool and leather jacket, sporting a big block "E" to Clarence Hedger, the manager. The jacket, a gift from the varsity squad, was in "appreciation for a big job well done," Woods and Feunquay declared.

Fred Harris, freshman-sophomore coach, awarded 21 letters to members of his squad, who had a 5-4 record and were co-champs of the Southern conference. Receiving F-S letters were Bill Dardeen, Kent Robinson, Gene Hall, Bryan Davenport, Steve Prince, Philip Overton, Philip Newton, Jack Muckley, Mike Mangrum, Ronnie Hatfield, Charles Wilson, Jerry Wesley, Mike Viers, Carl Falk, Ronnie Phelps, Bob Miller, Gary McGowan, Jack Lane, Rex Holman, Delmar Barton, Gary Barton and manager Jim Barnett.

Trophies Displayed

The tables were beautifully decorated in the school colors of purple and gold and vases of mums. Center of interest at the speakers' table were three trophies—Eldorado won the Southern Illinois varsity championship and was co-champ of the conference in Fresh-Soph competition and received trophies for each. And the "Downtown Quarterbacks" presented the school with a huge trophy in recognition of the unbeaten season, first at Eldorado since 1924. Sebe Kelly was spokesman for the Downtown Quarterbacks and made the official presentation.

In closing Coach Adams read letters of congratulations to the team from several persons, including letters from Eltis Henson, principal of the Harrisburg Township high school, and Fred Armistead, principal of the Harrisburg Junior high school.

Rev. Charles Branum gave the invocation, ETHS Principal J. Ward Barnes gave the welcome and introduced Lions club president Dr. James A. Barker and Rotary vice president Dr. William Johnson and Charles Hausser, president of the board of education. The Lions and Rotary co-sponsored the affair.

In addition to the football players, other guests included Homecoming Queen Myra Cox and attendants, cheerleaders and members of the press who covered the football season—Bill Searles and Bob Tierney of Eldorado and Bill Melton, The Daily Register.

Illinois Beats Colorado, 64-46, for Fourth Straight; Wisconsin Wins, Iowa Loses

By United Press

Illinois continued its winning ways Monday night with a 64-46 basketball win over Colorado and Wisconsin nipped a taller Rice team, 67-62, but Iowa fell before sharp shooting Wichita, 81-78.

Illinois, running its undefeated string to four straight, was cold from the floor during the first half, but still held a 27-23 intermission lead. After hitting on only 265 of their first half tries, the Illinois completed a 427 second half average and pulled away from the Golden Buffaloes from Boulder, Colo.

Roger Taylor paced Illinois with 17 points, while Gerry Schroeder led the Buffs with 12.

At Madison, Wisconsin's Badgers employed rough play and hot court shooting to overcome Rice Institute's height advantage. Bob Litzow with 20 points and Bunky Holt with 22 led the Badgers and the team as a whole hit on 50 per cent of their tries from the floor.

The Owls tried a fast breaking offense in an attempt to overwhelm Wisconsin, but the hot Badger marksmen never allowed the Southwest Conference entry to get closer than three points after the half. Both teams emerged from the game with 3-1 records.

Wichita managed to hold off a final stanza rally by the Iowa Hawkeyes to salvage an 81-78 victory on their home floor.

The Shockers held only a 37-36 halftime lead but opened up a six point margin until the waning minutes of the contest when Iowa narrowed the gap to 79-78.

Joe Stephens of Wichita and Iowa's Larry Swift paced the scorers, each with 19 points.

Iowa's record now stands at two games won and two lost.

HAND-PICKED for MURDER

THE STORY: After interviewing Wayne Howell and his bride Sandra, at the request of Wayne's father, Hugo Howell, Private Investigator Jim Bennett meets Hugo Campbell, daughter of the chief of police. It is obvious that Honey is in love with Wayne.

XIII

The waitress took my order for the cold-cut luncheon with iced tea and went away. I watched Hugo Howell and Ambrose Lott, who were still at the bar and still talking, although Howell had lowered his voice. More people entered the bar, and there was a small queue in the lobby waiting for a table in the dining room. Otto was busy making drinks, but once he looked over and smiled at me. I guessed that he was relieved that, so far, Hugo Howell had not started his abusive tactics.

The girl brought my lunch. I ate it, paid the check and left a tip, moved across to the bar and tapped Howell on a shoulder. He broke off his mumbling conversation with Lott and turned angrily. His heavy face was flushed and his mean little eyes looked redder than ever. When he saw me, his expression relaxed and he said thickly, "Oh, hello, Bennett."

I jerked my head toward the lobby. "I want to see you for a minute."

Ambrose Lott turned and glared at me, cold hate in his eyes. There was a faint bluish mark on his cheek where I'd slapped him.

Howell sighed heavily and slid his thick body off the stool. "All right, all right," he said in a complaining voice, "but make it snappy." He followed me into the lobby.

When we were in a deserted spot, maybe 10 feet from the entrance, I said to him, "I'm pretty certain your son is married, but I'm going to check it. What bank controls the trust fund?"

He teetered on his heels, squinting at me. He had shaved and had changed into clean white duck trousers and a white short-sleeved shirt, but he still wore both the belt and the suspenders. He snapped the suspenders, hiccupped gently, and said in his rasping voice, "The Union National in Detroit. Nate Lawson is the trust officer, good friend of mine. So Wayne really got hitched, did he?"

"And the money," I said, "I'm sorry."

"When?" he demanded. "When did she hook him?"

"Three days ago in Kentucky."

"Kentucky! A quick-marrying state. She didn't take any chances, did she? After she talked him into it she wanted it fast, before he changed his mind, so she could get her claws on the whole bundle." He jerked at my lapels, his eyes wild. "What did my boy say? Is he going to cut me in?"

"Two hundred bucks a month," I said. "He wouldn't even have to give you that." I tried to back away, but it was impossible.

"Is that all?" he cried. "That won't pay for my whisky!"

"I'm sorry," I said again, and pulled his hands away from my coat. "I'll see you later."

I went up to my room, took off my coat and hat, loosened my tie, stretched out on the bed, picked up the phone and placed a call to Detroit. It was 1 o'clock on a warm Thursday afternoon in August.

I got the bank in Detroit and asked for Mr. Lawson of the trust department. There was only a short delay. "Mr. Lawson," I said, "my name is Bennett and I represent Mr. Hugo Howell."

"Oh, yes. You're an attorney?"

"That is correct."

"What can I do for you?"

"I assume you are familiar with the terms of the late Mrs. Howell's trust fund for her son, Wayne?"

"Yes," he said, "but I'd better get the file. Just a moment please."

I waited. Then he said, "All right, Mr. Bennett."

"Did you receive notification of Wayne's marriage?"

"Yes, indeed. It just came from the son—a photostat of the certificate. Frankly, Mr. Bennett, I've been expecting to hear from Hugo or his representative. It concerns him quite seriously."

"I know," I said. "This was a rather odd trust agreement drawn up by Mrs. Howell."

"Perfectly in order," he assured me. "A trifle unusual, perhaps, but entirely legal. I hope that Hugo will not be difficult about it. Is he planning to sue?"

"I don't know at this time. Do you know Mr. Howell well?"

"Quite well," he said dryly. "I might say that his wife was com mendably farsighted in her stipulations. Hugo is not—an entirely responsible person."

"I agree."

"I am relieved to hear that, Mr. Bennett."

"And the marriage certificate is in order?"

"Yes, indeed. Wayne was married on August 21st in Alexandria, Ky., to Sandra Janice Osterman. It is witnessed by a justice of the peace and a Victor M. Osterman and attested to by—"

"All right," I said bleakly. "Under the terms of the trust document the entire fund now goes to the son, Wayne Howell. Is that correct?"

"Yes, plus earnings to date, fee and unencumbered, except for $200 a month which is to be paid Mr. Howell during his lifetime. We have a letter from the son to that effect." He paused and I heard him clear his throat. Then he said, "I might add that, under the circumstances, it is quite generous of the son."

"Thank you, Mr. Lawson. That's all I wanted to know."

Avoid Duplications

On Christmas Baskets,
Salvation Army Urges

Lt. Mildred Wallace of the Salvation Army today asked church groups and other organizations which plan to give out Christmas baskets if they would first check with the Salvation Army.

Lt. Wallace said the Salvation Army will give out a number of baskets and a check will avoid duplication.

Last year, she said, many families got two baskets and a few got three, because of duplications in different organizations giving baskets.

"If there are no duplications, more families will get these baskets," she commented.

Medics Call Quits

SANTIAGO, Chile (UP)—The 5,500 physicians, dentists and pharmacists working for the national health department under Chile's socialized medicine plan, said they would hand in their resignations to Health Minister Jorge Torrealba today because the government has turned down their demand for an 80 per cent salary increase. The government explained it had no money to grant the increase.

Illinois Farmers Who Wish Entire Farm in Reserve Must Apply in January

By WARREN STROTHER

United Press Staff Correspondent

If Illinois farmers wish to put all the cropland on their farms into the conservation reserve program for five or 10 years and quit farming for a while, they will have to do so during the month of January.

The Illinois Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office at Springfield reported no applications will be accepted for the new experimental program before Jan. 1, or after Jan. 31. All applications have to be made at local county ASC offices.

Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson announced the new experimental plan at Washington last week, with Illinois, Maine, Nebraska and Tennessee participating for the first year. It would permit a farmer to place all of the cropland on his farm under the conservation reserve section of the soil bank.

Willard E. Upp, chief administrative officer for the Illinois ASC committee, said at Springfield the new plan may be very attractive to some farmers nearly ready to retire from active farming, "but who haven't made up their minds yet."

Illinois Under Quota

The contract would have to be for five or 10 years, and payment for the out-of-production land would be made on the basis of bids submitted by the farmer. If the farmer and state ASC officials can agree on a price, the contract may be made.

Under the earlier conservation reserve program, which is still in effect, payments range from $9 to $11 an acre annually, with the government paying up to 80 per cent of the cost of putting the land in grass or trees or other suitable cover.

The conservation reserve program hasn't been particularly successful in Illinois, because few farmers were interested in taking valuable farmland out of production for conservation reserve payments. Only about 12,000 acres of Illinois land were placed under conservation reserve contracts in 1957, about 2 per cent of the Illinois "quota."

That fact, Upp said, is one reason Illinois was selected for the "whole farm" program. The Agriculture Department wanted to see if more farmers would be interested if all of their farmland could be placed in the program.

Some May Like It

The proposed contracts would cover only the productive cropland on a farm, Upp said, and would not prevent a farmer from living on the farm and using any of the remaining land for any purposes, so long as the cropland was not farmed. The land under contract would have to be planted in grass, trees, or other cover crop.

Thus woodland on a contract farm could be harvested, livestock could be raised on the land not covered by the contract, or any other non-crop activity carried out.

Upp said such a program might be especially attractive to a farmer eligible for social security payments, who could combine his conservation reserve payments and social security payments for a substantial income.

Agricultural officials do not expect many highly productive farms in the state's best farming areas to come under the program.

"But even there," Upp said, "there may be a few farmers whose personal situations are such that an offer like this may be very attractive to them."

Benson, when announcing the program, said the $5,000 ceiling per farm would be increased to $10,000 for the "whole farm" program. Payments for the average farm probably would be less than either figure.
